MEMBER CODE OF CONDUCT

1. The purpose of the Preston County Livestock Association shall be operated as a nonprofit organization and shall be operated exclusively for agricultural purposes within the meaning of Section 501 (c)(5) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future Federal tax code. PCLA seeks to work to educate local youth in agriculture and generally promote agriculture. PCLA seeks to work in conjunction with local 4-H and FFA groups to ensure that the junior membership of PCLA has an annual youth show and sale for their consigned market livestock projects. We believe in creating a safe environment that encourages educating youth in agriculture. All PCLA members participating in or attending events, meetings, activities, livestock shows, or sales sponsored by PCLA, are required to conduct themselves according to the current PCLA Bylaws, Rules and PCLA Member Code of Conduct and future modifications or amendments to the PCLA's Member Code of Conduct.

2. I am aware that my actions and decisions affect me and others. I acknowledge that I have been given a copy of the PCLA Member Code of Conduct. I agree to conduct myself in accordance with the PCLA Member Code of Conduct at all times. I understand that my failure to do so may result in the loss of privileges during PCLA events, meetings, activities, livestock shows or sales including involvement in future PCLA events, meetings, activities, livestock shows or sales. My signature below demonstrates my agreement to abide by the PCLA Members Code of Conduct, as well as any code of conduct established for a specific PCLA event I attend.

I have read, reviewed and discussed the current PCLA Member Code of Conduct. I understand that I will be expected to conduct myself in accordance with the current PCLA Member Code of Conduct and any future modifications or amendments at all times, and that failure to do so may result in the consequences stated in paragraph 2 above. I also understand that coordinators of PCLA events, livestock shows, sales or any other meetings, often establish specific expectations, guidelines, and consequences, and should I choose to participate in these events, I will be expected to review the rules and expectations for each event and follow them accordingly.
